

DELIVERED

5 scheduled deliverables were submitted to the EU at the end of March. Thanks to those who helped create these reports.

Next up: 2 for the end of May!- Jenny will be in touch with those who's input is required.

ESRs Romain Frelat, Camilla Sguotti & Supervisor Christian Möllmamm @ UHAM's paper: A three-dimensional view on biodiversity changes: spatial, temporal, and functional perspectives on fish communities in the Baltic sea
Is now published in the ICES Journal of Marine Science doi: 10.1093/icesjms/fsy027

The Commission requests that each ESR must complete and submit the MSCA evaluation questionnaire at the end of their recruitment period. A follow-up questionnaire will also be provided two years later.

Marie Nordström, supervisor at the Åbo Akademi has made this interesting video explaining the Baltic Sea problems.

EuroMarine
2018 funding

calls are now open, to apply, check that your institution is part of the network. Calls: Workshop & Working Group. Individual Fellowships